

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Twenty years ago, The Alfred & Adele Davis Academy opened its doors to 20 eager Kindergarten and First Grade students whose pioneer families led the way to a brand new school with an important mission grounded in Reform Jewish values. Classrooms were located in the basement of the Junior Achievement Building on Abernathy Road; and

WHEREAS, Today, The Davis Academy has two state-of-the-art campuses in Sandy Springs, achieved triple accreditation, is recognized nationally for its excellence and innovative educational programs, and is the largest K-8 Reform Jewish Day School in the United States; and

WHEREAS, The Davis Academy is not only celebrating two decades of growth and success, but taking the opportunity to honor its founders and all the school's supporters throughout the years; and

WHEREAS, The City of Sandy Springs is proud of The Davis Academy and its successful 20 years educating young minds in Sandy Springs;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Eva Galambos, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Sandy Springs and on behalf of the City Council proclaim June 4, 2013 as The Davis Academy Day in the City of Sandy Springs.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the City of Sandy Springs, Georgia, on this ____ day of June 2013.

Eva Galambos,

Mayor
