Operating Overview
Considerations used in Revenue Forecasting

- Revenues have declined from 2009 levels in almost every category with the exceptions of Municipal Court fines, Property Taxes and Recreation Fees.

- Although Property taxes are anticipated to be roughly $2.2M above the 2010 budgeted amount, this is still $324K below revenues received in 2009. It is anticipated that in 2011 this amount will decline an additional 8% - 10% to slightly under $27M. 2010 revenue was higher than budget due to additional commercial properties added to the digest; however, we have no assurance that we will see a repeat of this in 2011.

- Permit fees were reduced 50% in 2010, which will translate to lower revenues in 2011. Although there was an indication that permits increased slightly in the 4th quarter of 2009, the numbers are still well below the number of permits issued in 2008 for the same quarter.

- Although sales tax has remained flat in comparison to 2009, the City projects revenues on a conservative basis. We have taken into consideration the trends throughout the state such as the increase in unemployment from 10.1% to 10.3% and the continuing sluggishness of the economy as a whole. Neighboring counties have seen decreases in sales tax revenues of up to 25%.

- Municipal court fines will surpass budget in 2010 due to a push this year to close out old cases. However, the fine revenue will likely be $400,000 lower next year, roughly equal to the 2009 level.

- As the City continues to improve the parks, additional programs have been added, which generate participation fees. This revenue line is anticipated to grow in proportion to the new programs, however, we chose to project this conservatively by keeping it in line with anticipated 2010 income.
Considerations for Expenditure Forecasting

- Increasing investor confidence as well as rising crude oil prices are pushing up the price of gasoline at the pump. Although Georgia still has lower prices than most of the United States, we anticipate prices of $3.10 by mid-summer and possibly up to $4.00 by the end of the year.

- As we add new recreation programs and facilities the operating costs will also continue to increase.

- Vehicles purchased several years ago are beginning to show high mileage and wear. Beginning Year 4, the City anticipated replacing approximately one-quarter of the fleet per year.
Economic Conditions

- Federal Reserve executed numerous monetary policy initiatives in an attempt to limit recession
- Uncle Sam has issued billions of dollars to shore up housing, banking and auto industries
- Unemployment has reached highest level in three decades
- Market strategists and economists alike point to a slow and painful recovery
- Economy will need years to recover from the anxiety, lack of consumer confidence and financial fear that transpired this past year
- This slowed growth will continue to affect Sandy Springs as the economy recovers
